PENGUINS

Penguins almost _____ (1) live in the Southern Hemisphere. Highly _____ (2) for life in the water, they don't use their wings for flying but for swimming. They spend half of their lives on land and the _____ (3) half in the sea. They _____ (4) only in cold climates, such as Antarctica, some even live near the equator. The largest is the emperor penguin and the smallest is the little blue penguin, also _____ (5) the fairy penguin. They are social birds. Many species feed, swim and nest in groups. Many penguins have only one partner for the _____ (6) life. Their black and white coloring is a matter of camouflage - from above, its black back blends into the _____ (7) of the ocean. From below, its white belly fits with the bright surface.

The word penguin first _____ (8) in the 16th when European explorers discovered the first species. Today, penguins are popular and loved around the world and have been the _____ (9) of many books and films. _____ (10), the most notable is a cartoon Pingu. Other famous penguin is Tux, the Linux operating system mascot.
